4. Owner and Tenant agree to indemnify and hold the Community Parties harmless from and against any and all claims, suits, proceedings, liabilities, obligations, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, defense costs and reasonable attorneys' fees and other professional fees and expenses) incurred in connection with or arising out of Owner's or Tenant's (a) performance of their respective obligations hereunder, or (b) breach of any of Owner's or Tenant's obligations, representations or covenants herein.

5. If a dispute arises out of or relates to this Agreement, or the alleged breach thereof, a Party shall notify the other Parties of any such dispute in writing and shall receive a response from the Party or Parties claimed to be in breach within five (5) business days following receipt of such notice substantively responding to the dispute notice and proposing a time and place for meeting within five (5) business days following the date of the response if such response does not fully resolve the dispute.

In the event that the Parties are unable to agree on a mediator, a mediator shall be appointed by the named administrator.

- c. For the avoidance of doubt, any one (1) or more of Community Party(ies) may enforce their rights under this Section, either alone or in concert with any other Community Party(ies).

6. After exhausting the mediation procedure set forth in the immediately preceding Section and the expiration of any applicable cure periods, a Party may bring suit against another Party or otherwise pursue all remedies available at law or in equity at such Party's own cost and expense.

7. It is expressly agreed by all Parties that all Community Parties have, and shall have, standing to request and receive relief under this Agreement. It is expressly agreed by all Parties that this is a private agreement, and that Community Parties retain all remedies at law and in equity to enforce this Agreement. If any governmental agency, body or board shall fail to adopt or shall lessen any of the restrictions stated in Section 1 of this Agreement, such restrictions shall nonetheless remain in full force and effect among the Parties as provided above.

8. Owner and Tenant acknowledge that the provisions contained in Section 1 of this Agreement are reasonable to protect Community Parties' interests; and that any violation thereof would result in irreparable harm to Community Parties. Therefore, Owner and Tenant agree that in the event of a violation of Section 1 of this Agreement, any aggrieved Community Party(ies) shall have the right and remedy, in addition to any other remedy that may be available at law or in equity, to seek injunctive relief in any court having equity jurisdiction. Owner and Tenant further expressly acknowledge that any such violation of Section 1 of this Agreement will cause irreparable harm to Community Parties and that money damages will not provide an adequate remedy to Community Parties. In addition, Owner and Tenant acknowledge that any injunction issued in accordance with this Section shall be available without the posting by Community Parties of any bond or other security, and without proof of damages; Owner and Tenant hereby consent to the issuance of such injunction; and Owner and Tenant agree that any such injunction obtained by any Community Party(ies) shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, monetary damages and any other relief to which such Community Party(ies) may be entitled. For the avoidance of doubt, any one (1) or more of Community Party(ies) may enforce their rights under this Section, either alone or in concert with any other Community Party(ies).

9. The Parties are authorized and have the authority to enter into this Agreement and have obtained all necessary approvals in order to do so. Each Party represents that the person signing this Agreement on its behalf is authorized to do so. The Parties further represent that they have not sold, assigned, transferred, conveyed, or otherwise disposed of any of the rights, claims, demands, obligations, or causes of action referred to in this Agreement.

10. The terms and conditions set forth herein are covenants intended by the Parties to apply to and bind Owner, Tenant and the Community Parties, and each of their respective successors and assigns. The provisions of Paragraph 1(a) shall be contained in a Deed Restriction Agreement (in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and made a part hereof) which the Owner shall record in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds of the City of Philadelphia promptly upon execution of this Agreement; and its terms and conditions shall be covenants running with the land.

11. Owner agrees to provide a copy of this Agreement to any prospective successor or assign and require that any successor or assign agree to be bound by this Agreement as a condition of any sale or conveyance; and this Agreement shall be solely binding upon such successors and assigns, and any previous owner shall be released from any liability hereunder. Owner and/or Tenant, as applicable, shall immediately after entering into any Successor Agreement, provide written notice to Community Parties of the existence of the Successor Agreement, including the full address and contact information of the Successor.

 - (f) No waiver by a Party of any condition or of any breach of any term, covenant, representation or warranty contained herein shall be effective unless in writing, and no waiver in any one or more instances shall be deemed to be a further or continuing waiver of any such condition or breach in any other instances or a waiver of any other condition or breach of any other term, covenant, representation or warranty.
 - (g) The recitals contained in this Agreement are incorporated herein as if set forth at length. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience of the Parties and are not part of the substance thereof.
